HPE Storage recognized with five CRN awards for 2019

1 A panel of CRN editors, backed by 5,000 product reviews in 22 different product categories, eligible products were limited to those sold through North American channel partners that began shipping between Dec. 1, 2018, and Sept. 16, 2019. The survey designed by The Channel Company research team received over 5,000 ratings, and the overall winner in each category is the finalist product receiving the highest overall score in that category.
